QWEST COMMUNICATIONS
CORPORATION AND QWEST LD
CORP. dba QWEST LONG DISTANCE'S NOTICE OF
DESIGNATING FAIR VALUE RATE
BASE INFORMATION AS NON-CONFIDENTIAL

21 On November 19, 2003, the Hearing Division issued a Procedural Order in the 22 above-captioned dockets. The Procedural Order takes issue with the fact that Qwest has 23 submitted fair value rate base ("FVRB") information in these dockets, but designated such 24 information as confidential. As a result, the Procedural Order set a time for "oral
25 argument" on "the issues of how and why the Commission can/should make a FVRB
26 finding for QCC and QLDC," when such information is not filed in the public record.
Such oral argument is unnecessary because Qwest Communications Corporation and Qwest LD Corp. dba Qwest Long Distance waives any confidentiality attached to the asset valuations previously provided to Staff in each docket for QCC and QLDC as reflected on

1 the attached Exhibit A.

* As reseller, no plant and equipment, and any office equipment will be leased. Cash not estimated or included.

 Qwest provides the following clarification: This amount represents start-up cash capital on the books of QLDC as of October 31, 2002. Due to a miscommunication between Staff and the Company, Staff's report included this number as an Arizona Jurisdictional number. Instead, the amount is a total Company number. As of September 30, 2003, the total company (14-state) cash capital of QLDC is approximately $27 million, consisting of external and internal receivables for in-region long distance.
